MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1866.

NEW YORK.

Everything indicates that the Union Republicans will carry this great State by a sweeping majority, and very probably increase their delegation in Congress. The nomination of Mayor HOFFMAN, of the city, for Governor, made under the chilling influence of the news from Maine, was a plain indication that the Democracy are inclined to kick their new partners, the Johnson Republicans, out of the concern, and run the machine themselves. The result in Maine, where much was hoped for, showed them that their new associates were rather a drag upon them than otherwise, and hence they dropped DIX and took HOFFMAN, although they have not the smallest chance or even expectation of electing him.

HOFFMAN is a democrat of the FERNANDO WOOD school, and of course a warm supporter of the President's policy; but the sanguinary fruits of that policy, as seen in the New Orleans massacre, and the consummate folly and indiscretion of its author, as displayed in his late electioneering tour, have played the mischief with all who have adopted that policy as a plank in their platform. Even the democracy which sympathized with treason and rebellion, and opposed the war, can hardly stand that.

BEARING FALSE WITNESS.

The President, in his speech at Terre Haute, said:

"The great object in suppressing the rebellion was to restore peace and to uphold the doctrine that no States have a right to secede, they all being States of this Union; and now that the rebellion in the South is suppressed, there is a cry at the other end of the line that the Union is dissolved and shall not be reunited."

By his stereotope phrase, "the other end of the line," he means all those who oppose his "policy" and support that of Congress. Not to put too fine a point upon it, the speaker uttered a falsehood when he said there was "a cry" from these men that "the Union is dissolved, and shall not be re-united." Neither in their declarations nor by their acts have Congress, or the men who support Congress, said anything of the kind, as all well-informed men know. Congress has set the door wide open for the return of the rebellious States, and every one of them may be in by the first Monday in December if they choose, on terms as just and generous, as kind and lenient as it is possible to offer with safety.

THE Republican majority of the last Legislature repealed the tax on real estate. This repeal was made at the suggestion of the present Republican State Treasurer. It is well enough to have the voters remember these facts.

IN the Republican Convention of Clarion County, a resolution was introduced favorable to a new nomination for Congress, in order to displace Mr. Finney on the ticket; but it was overwhelmingly voted down.

IN the Johnstown accident 22 persons had each one leg broken; 4 both legs broken; 14 each a collar bone or arm; 2 each a leg and an arm; 1 both a thigh and shoulder; 2 had noses broken.

THE Convention of the Johnson party of Union county met at Lewisburg, on Monday of last week, and nominated Andrew H. Dill, Esq., for Congress.

THE National Republican Committee have made a collection of the President's tour speeches, and contemplate publishing them as a campaign document.

THE organization of the "Grand Army of the Republic" in Illinois now numbers 80,000, all officers and men who served in the army during the war.

MAJOR GENERAL W. W. ORME, one of our ablest Illinois officers in the lase army, died at his home at Bloomington, Thursday, of consumption.

HON. MATT. CARPENTER, of Wisconsin, has challenged Senator Doolittle to a joint discussion of political questions, but the Senator declines.

THE Iowa State Fair will open at Burlington to-morrow, and continue through the week. The prospect is flattering.

Anniversary of Mexican Independence—Flood in the Sandwich Islands.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 15.—Jose A. Godery, Mexican Consul, has issued an invitation to all patriotic Mexican residents to participate to-day in celebrating the fifty-sixth anniversary of Mexican Independence.

Sandwich Island dates to August 25th are received. The river at Hilo rose thirty feet perpendicular August 5th, sweeping away piers of solid masonry twenty-five feet high, which was just ready for the arches of the new bridge.

Arrived, barks Jeannie, Pierre, Russell, Marseilles; bark D. Currey, Honolulu, bringing 2,500 packages sugar, 380 barrels molasses. The whale ship Roman, Hamlin, reported off Columbia river September 2d, with 1,050 barrels of oil and 1,200 pounds of bones.

Cleveland Soldiers and Sailors' Convention.

CLEVELAND, (O.,) Sept. 15.—The preparations for the Soldiers and Sailors' Convention are tolerably complete. The tent, with a capacity to hold 304,600 persons, is ready in Monument Square. The arrivals up to the present time are heavy, but to-night and to-morrow will largely increase them. General Steadman and the Committee of Arrangements will arrive to-night and the programme will probably be settled at the meeting this evening. Governor Bramlette, of Kentucky, and Generals Wool, McCook and Custar are already here. The indications point to General Wool as temporary and General Steadman as permanent chairman. Beyond this but little is yet indicated of the course of the Convention. It is the general impression that but little speech-making will be done.

The weather to-day is cool, but threatening rain this evening.

The Second Cable—Dispatch from Cyrus W. Field.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The following dispatch has been received from Cyrus W. Field:

Port au Basque, Sept. 15.—The Medway completed coaling at midnight on Tuesday, and left in company with the Terrible at daylight on Wednesday morning. We arrived at St. Pierre early on Thursday morning, but were prevented from entering the harbor by thick weather until next day. We have found a suitable landing place for our cable from Placenia to St. Pierre. We arrived here at three o'clock, and shall proceed to lay the cable across the Gulf of St. Lawrence as soon as the weather will permit. It has been blowing a gale all day, preventing us from landing before. We arrived off this place early this morning.

The trustees and faculty of the above Medical College have issued "scholarships" at seventy-five dollars each, which entitles the holders to attend lectures until graduation or as many sessions as he wishes.

This renders a medical education cheaper than ever proposed by any University or College in this country or Europe, possessing the same extensive facilities.

There are sixteen Professors and every branch of Medicine and Surgery is thoroughly taught.

The student holding a "scholarship" can enter the college at any time during the Lectures, attend as long as he wishes, and re-enter the Institution as frequently as desired.

Persons wishing to obtain scholarships can apply to I. Old-hue, M. D., Professor of Urino Pathology in the above-mentioned College.

Spread the Truth!

Some medical men insist that it is undignified to advertise a remedy, however valuable it may be. Queer reasoning this. It is like saying that an article which the world needs should be hid in a corner—that benefits and blessings may be too widely diffused—that the means of protecting and restoring health would be a close monopoly and not accessible to all. The argument is bad. It is worse than that: it is inhuman. Suppose HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS—an absolute specific for dyspepsia, biliousness and nervous disability—had never been known beyond the repertoire of the faculty, what would have been the consequence? Instead of caring and invigorating millions, the good effects of the preparation would have been confined to a comparative few. There is the highest authority for saying that light should not be hid under a bushel; that whatever is excellent should be placed as a city on a hill, where all men can take cognizance of it. It is upon this principle that the BITTERS have been advertised and continue to be advertised in every newspaper of any prominence in the western hemisphere, and that the spontaneous testimonials in its favor have been translated into all written languages. Thousands enjoy perfect health to-day who would be languishing on beds of sickness if the newspapers had not spread the truth with regard to this unequaled invigorant and corrective far and wide. Suppose profit has been reaped from this publicity. Is that any argument against it? If the public health has been protected; if lives have been saved; if the feeble have been strengthened and the sick restored, great good has been accomplished; and who so mean as to grudge to exertions thus directed their fair reward?

Hostetter's Bitters

Are sold wholesale and retail at very low rates at Fleming's Drug and Patent Medicine Depot, No. 84 Market street, corner of the Diamond and Market, near Fourth street.

The Presidential Party in Washington.

HARRISBURG, September 15—9 A. M.—The Presidential party have just left here, the multitude cheering the President, Grant and Farragut. The President bowing his thanks.

YORK, PA., September 15.—10:30 A. M.—Thousands of enthusiastic people gathered here, and vociferously cheered the Presidential party. The excursionists were conducted to the Washington House, where they were warmly welcomed to the place, by Judge Fisher, in behalf of the authorities and citizens of York. The President responded, and throughout the delivery of his remarks was enthusiastically cheered.

BALTIMORE, September 15—2 P. M.—Immense crowns of excited people were collected here to greet the President, General Grant, and Admiral Farragut. Governor Swann, met the President at the station, and delivered an address, in which he informed him that the City councils of Baltimore, had refused to cooperate with the Mayor in paying proper respect to the Chief magistrate of the nation, nevertheless the President would find a spontaneous updising of the people to greet him.

The President replied briefly, expressing his heartfelt thanks for the kind and cordial welcome that had been extended to him by the Governor as the representative of the people of Maryland, not only to him as the Chief Magistrate of the country, but as a citizen of the United States. The address of the Governor and the reply of the President were warmly applauded. The guests were then escorted to the Eutaw House where they were entertained at a banquet. Governor Swan made a speech, proposing the health of the President, which was received with great cheering. The President briefly returned thanks.

WASHINGTON, September 15.—The train left Baltimore for Washington at half-past five o'clock, and the President was loudly cheered by the thousands upon thousands of persons at the station. The reception in Baltimore was indeed earnest and emphatic. General Grant left in the early afternoon train for Washington, and therefore was not present at the banquet.

WASHINGTON, 7:30 P. M.—A large crowd met the President at the station and greeted him with repeated cheers. He was escorted to the front of the City Hall, where Mayor Wallach welcomed him in a brief address, to which the President replied by tendering his thanks. The procession of military companies and civic associations accompanied the President to the Executive mansion.

The President in alighting from his carriage, spoke as follows:

Fellow Citizens:—For this demonstration you tender me upon my return home to assume the discharge of my official duties, you will please accept my heartfelt thanks. Such a welcome from the people who have been the daily eye-witnesses of the manner in which I have discharged my duties, is peculiarily gratifying. All I can promise you for the future is that there will be a continuance of my conduct in the past. I have tried to discharge my official duties in compliance with the Constitution and the principles which I deemed to be right, I will add that the sentiment which you exhibit to-night is not peculiar to yourselves, but that which pervades the country wherever I have been. My own opinion is that the expression which has gone abroad to the country with regard to sustaining a government of constitutional law is unmistakable and not to be misunderstood, and I believe the day is not distant when the judgment of the American people will be made manifest that this Union must be restored; that peace and prosperity and harmony must again prevail through the United States.

I believe I can safely testify that the great portion of your fellow citizens that I have visited, and I have seen millions of them since I left you, will accord with you in sustaining the principles of free government in compliance with the Constitution of the country. Permit me in returning this evening to again tender you, a people whom I have known long, in whose midst I have served in various official capacities, and now serve in that of Chief Magistrate, my heartfelt thanks for this cordial welcome, which will be remembered by me as long as there is a pulsation in my heart.

Sale of Government Wharves—Cholera at Norfolk—Fenian Ball.

FORTRESS MONROE, Sept. 14.—Two large Government wharves at Newport News were sold at auction this morning for $15,000 to the Newport News & Richmond Railroad Company. They originally cost the Government $50,000.

Two cases of cholera were reported at Norfolk by the Board of Health of that city yesterday evening. Several cases reported the day before were recovering.

The Irish population of Portsmouth and the surrounding country—Fenian sympathizers—gave a ball recently at the Ocean House. The ball room was decorated with the national ensign of Ireland and America, and great enthusiasm for the Fenian cause was manifested.

The entire estimated cost of the Richmond & Newport News Railroad, to be put in running order, is said to be $1,073,610.

In addition to these there were many who were slightly hurt, but are about tending to their business. There must have been five hundred persons hurt more or less—over two hundred seriously; the quarter proportion of them having their legs and arms broken. A large number are hurt internally, and may die at any moment. There have been no amputations yet that I can learn of, but many of them will lose their legs, and some who are old will likely die during the operation.

Much feeling is exhibited here against the Railroad Company for allowing what they term "the old rotten thing" to stand. It appears that new planks had been put down only a few days ago, and it is alleged that the timbers had to be turned in order that they might find a solid place for the spikes. This is a matter for judicial decision.

There is a great scarcity of physicians here, and it is remarkable that some surgical assistance has not been tendered from neighboring towns.

C. E. H. Bourvill, of Frank Leslie's Illustrated paper is here to make a sketch of the scene. He will have to draw pretty largely on his imagination to sketch the scene of Friday noon. One remarkable feature of the scene was, one man when he recovered from the shock, not much hurt, saw an eye lying on his thigh; it is supposed to be that of Patrick Draimond, who lost one altogether. Another man who had his leg broken above the ankle, and the stump run through the skin, walked out of the wreck on the stump, but soon after fainted. Some are so badly hurt internally that they cannot speak and can scarcely breathe. Miss Downey and J. B. McCreight are in this condition. There have been only the three deaths yet—already reported. Mr. Metzgar, Mrs. Quirk and Nathan Duncan.

The Coroner's Jury will render a verdict to-morrow at six o'clock P. M. ANAWAN.

The following officers for the ensuing year were chosen: J. C. Upham, of Boston, President; G. C. Churchill, of Chicago, Vice President; A. L. Whipple, of Albany, Treasurer; J. J. G. The following is the number of games won and lost by each player: Dion won six and lost one; Plunkett won five and lost two; Daniels won three and lost four; McCarthy won five and lost two; Foley won three and lost four; Frawley won one and lost five; Hubbell won three and lost four; Harrison won one and lost five.

Mexican Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, September 15.—Mr. Romero, the Mexican Minister, received dispatches to-day from Vera Cruz dated the 31st of August. They contain the following news:

The city of San Louis Potosi has been occupied by the national forces of Mexico.

The city of Jasuittan, in the State of Vera Cruz, had been captured by the Liberals, the three hundred Austrians who garrisoned it having surrendered.

It was reported at Vera Cruz that Gandala Jara had been taken by the republican forces, but this rumor needs confirmation.

The Liberals attacked Vera Cruz on the night of the 29th ult., and captured eleven French soldiers.

Maximilian had issued a decree for the purpose of collecting fifteen per centum of the value of the confiscated national church property. The tax is more than can be paid, and consequently occasioned much dissatisfaction against the author of the decree in the places subject to French rule. The dispatches state that the national forces were everywhere increasing, and that many of the Imperialists were going over to the Liberals.

New York Cholera Cases—The Fenian Revival—Execution Ordered in St. Domingo.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Seven cases of cholera were reported in this city yesterday and five deaths; in Brooklyn one death and four cases are reported.

Head Center Stephens has called a meeting of the Fenian Brotherhood of Manhattan and Long Island next Sunday. Important movements, it is said, may be expected soon from the headquarters of the Stephens faction.

The Herald's Cape Haytien correspondent says: General Salnave, who was captured by Gen. Cabral, was soon to be executed by order of President Geffrard. It was considered that his death would not, in any degree, impede the revolutionary movement which is merely to depose of Geffrard, who has assumed dictatorial powers, and elect a new president by universal suffrage.

European News by Steamer—Cholera in Italy—Probable Dismissal of Drouyn De L'Huys.

FARTHER POINT, September 16.—The steamship Moravian, which left Liverpool on the afternoon of the 6th, passed this point to-day. She has upwards of three hundred troops on board, detachments of different regiments, but chiefly the Royal Artillery.

ITALY.—Cholera continued very prevalent in various parts of Italy. There are large numbers of deaths daily at Naples, Genoa and other towns.

FRANCE.—Various diplomatic changes were considered imminent in Paris. The dismissal of Drouyn De L'Huys was the subject of much comment, and it was believed it would conduce to the preservation of peace.

President Johnson's Contribution—The Accident to Mr. Edge—Brazilian Emigration.

NEW YORK, September 15.—A Times' special says: President Johnson contributed five hundred dollars for the benefit of the sufferers from the accident at Johnstown.

Mr. Edge, the Pianist, is likely to recover from his accident the other day. The physicians give no hope of the recovery of Mr. Haymer, so seriously injured with ex-Mayor Wood of Brooklyn, a few days since.

The American and Brazilian Steamship Co., incorporated by the Legislature of Alabama, has opened an office at Mobile. The first vessel of the line established by the Company left Mobile last week with thirty-seven passengers, mostly emigrants for the Brazilian empire.

South Carolina Legislation on the Negro Code.

COLUMBIA, S. C., September 15.—Further legislation on the subject of the negro code has been postponed till the regular session of the Legislature. Resolutions were introduced and referred to the Committee on Federal Relations, requesting the President to inform the military officials that the war is ended in South Carolina; also, requesting the discontinuance of the Provost Marshals' Courts, and restricting the jurisdiction of the Military Courts within the limits prescribed by the articles of war.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON THIRD PAGE.)

To Our Friends.

Owing to the immense number of meetings now being held throughout the county by those favorable to the election of General John W. Geary, we are unable to be present on all occasions to get such a report as we would wish. We are, therefore, constrained to ask our friends in the suburbs and country districts to furnish us with an outline report of such meetings at as early an hour as possible.

Fighting His Battles O'er Again.

On Saturday afternoon the crowd at the Union Depot were somewhat startled by a man who rushed into the midst of them, bareheaded and flourishing a butcher knife in one hand and a tremendous handy billy in the other. He was absolutely crazy drunk and lunged about with his weapons in the most desperate manner, but fortunately without doing any harm. After infinite trouble he was secured by officers Fox and Rook, and conveyed in a wagon to the lock-up, shouting some army poetry all the way. After he became somewhat sobered he gave his name as Abram Wilbach. He was from Michigan, and had been four years in the army, receiving three or four wounds.

Some four weeks ago he came to this vicinity and worked on a farm some six miles out in the country. On Saturday he went to the depot to start for home, but took dinner and a drink with a nice looking fellow whom he did not know. That one drink, he said, made him crazy. He states that before he got drunk he had over thirty dollars in his pocket. When he was arrested, however, he had only about sixty cents, and it is probable that the "nice" looking fellow could explain about the rest of it. The butcher knife, he said, was an army relic, he having used it in Libby prison. Another relic of somewhat more questionable character he was mourning as lost when we saw him. He said that in his spree he had lost a coat somewhere, which he would not have lost for any money. It was old and ragged, with the lining out and the tails partly gone, but there was value about it. In explanation, he said that the side-pocket contained a man's jaw-bone! He had brought home with him and had preserved as a precious relic the jaw-bone of a dead rebel! There's no accounting for tastes. In the morning he was discharged, in consideration of his military services and the peculiar circumstances of his case.

Personal.

We had the pleasure of meeting the justly celebrated Irish comedian, Mr. Barney Williams last evening. It is the first time we have looked upon his round, good humored face for quite a number of years, and we must say we were surprised to see how tenderly time has dealt with him, he is in fact as youthful and handsome as ever. Not since the veteran Chas. Porter enacted at the Old Theatre, more than twelve years since, has Mr. Williams appeared in our city. Since then he has made a triumphant European tour and has played with immense success in the chief cities of the East. To say that Mr. Williams is the very best Irish comedian on the boards is to say that which everybody knows, and during his stay we look for jammed houses. Mrs. Williams should not be forgotten in speaking of ability, for as the romping light-hearted natural Yankee gal she has no equals in the profession. To-night the Williams' open at the Opera House for a brief engagement, and during their stay Manager Hess has made arrangements to produce several novelties in which they will appear.

Very Good.—Mr. Howard Hamilton furnishes us with a copy of an excellent lithograph representing how odious is treason. The great mogul of the Fusion, "A. J.," is squatted upon an easy chair bearing in his arms Jeff. Davis in his female apparel. To the rear stands "Billy" Seward, looking as wise as a prophet should look, while little Robert E. Lee is cutting capers upon a fiery steed mounted on wooden rockers. The President smiles upon the scene, while in the clouded background, stands "Old Nick" urging the massacre of New Orleans, from which A. J's eyes are directed. The carricature is well designed and neatly printed, and is issued by G. F. Schuchman & Co., 74 Fifth street.

Honorable.—The Post very honorably gives us credit with having the only full report of the President's banquet speech. The Post of Saturday, reproduced our report in its columns, and we are told it appeared also in the Johnson organ without the credit being warded.

The County Fair.

To-morrow the Allegheny County Agricultural and Horticultural Fair will begin at Iron City Park. The exhibition, which will continue for four days, promises to be one of the most important of its character ever held in this city. Articles for competition and exhibition will be received from all parts of Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia. The Board of Managers have determined on a liberal and expensive list of premiums selected with due regard to their appropriateness, and amounting in the aggregate to over four thousand dollars. The grounds have been improved and beautified, the former buildings enlarged, new ones constructed, sheds built and extended, additional wells dug and the race course widened and graded. Excellent arrangements have been made and liberal inducements offered for a fine display of domestic and foreign goods, farm and horticultural implements, fruits, flowers, vegetables, horses, cattle, sheep, poultry, swine, mechanical improvments and fine arts. In the latter there is a lively competition all our local artists having entered as contestants for the prizes, and from what we can learn, the art display will be one of the most creditable since the State fair in 1855.

The exhibition of stock will be very fine, and we learn that exhibitors are coming from some of the adjoining States with pure-blooded stock of different kinds. On looking over the books on Saturday we found comparatively but few entries, considering the number of applications that have been made, and the articles ready for exhibition, but we suppose that to-day the entries will nearly if not quite all be made. Among those made we will refer to a few of the more prominent: Class 1, a lot of three year old mares, geldings and stallions; class 2, four year old mares and yearling colts; class 3, stallions over four years old; class 4, mule colts; class 8, a lot of very fine sheep; class 10, a superior lot of long-wooled sheep; class 22, an exhibition of very fine apples; class 29, a very extensive and superior exhibition of farming implements; class 30, a handsome assortment of plows; class 38 vehicles of different descriptions; class 42, a splendid display of the works of our artists; class 42½, fourteen entrees of the fine arts; class, 43, heavy machinery; class 44, shepherds' dogs and bloodhounds. These constitute a mere moiety of the entrees. The stalls will be filled with stock, and the greater portion of the goods will be placed in position to-day, so that by to-night the grounds will be in order for the reception of visitors.

We trust that every branch of industry will be equally well represented, in order that the Fair may be a grand success, and that the inventive genius of the people may be stimulated by the awards given to the successful competitors.

We have already published the time table agreed upon by the Pennsylvania Central Railroad for the accommodation of persons visiting the Fair, but for the benefit of those who have not seen it heretofore, we append it:

Leave Union Depot, Pittsburgh time:
Regular train, 10:20 A. M.;
Special train, 10:50 A. M.;
Regular train, 11:50 A. M.;
Returning—leave Fair Grounds:
Regular train, 1:53 P. M.;
Regular train, 3:47 P. M.;
Regular train, 5:59 P. M.;
Regular train, 6:48 P. M.;

Excursion tickets will be furnished at all the stations between Altoona and Wall's, good for return until September 21st.

The Headache Next Morning.

The worst experience connected with a grand spree is the headache and repentance next morning. Our citizens who indulged in the dissipation of a Johnsonian reception the other night, are feeling "their hair pull" now, when they have their bills to pay and the rubbish to clear away. The Committee of Arrangements held a post mortem meeting at the St. Charles Hotel, on Saturday morning, at eleven o'clock, Hon. Henry A. Weaver in the chair.

On motion Geo. W. Leonard was appointed Secretary pro tem.

The following resolutions were offered, unanimously adopted and ordered to be engrossed upon the minutes of the Committee:

Resolved, That the Committee of Arrangements deem it just and appropos that the sincere thanks of the Committee be tendered to the Fire Departments of Pittsburgh and Allegheny City for the remarkable promptness with which they accepted the invitation extended to them to participate in the reception ceremonies of the Chief Magistrate of the United States, and, further, that the good order and respectful bearing of each and every officer and member during the parade, was such as to elicit the highest encomiums of praise from the President and his distinguished party; and, further, the Committee sincerely regret their inability to do anything at the present time of a more substantial nature than this formal vote of thanks, for the reason that a large majority of the manufacturers, jobbing houses, merchants and bankers of the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny declined to contribute one dollar of their money, and their presence, to the reception of the President and his party. The money contributed to defray the expenses was furnished chiefly by the people, and notwithstanding the refusal of the manufacturers, leading merchants and bankers to contribute either their money or presence, the reception was the greatest success ever achieved in Western Pennsylvania.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Committee are tendered to the proprietor of the St. Charles Hotel for his admirable arrangements at the banquet, in affording the President an opportunity to be heard, without interruption, in behalf of the Union, and enjoy the luxuries of a table not excelled in any other city in the country.

A number of bills were read, approved and referred to the Finance Committee.

On motion, adjourned.

A Geary Club in the First Ward, Allegheny.

A meeting of the citizens of the First ward, Allegheny, was held on Saturday evening, September 15th, for the purpose of forming a Geary Club. General Charles Barnes was elected temporary Chairman, and Captain S. C. Schoyer, Secretary.

On motion the Chair appointed the following committee on permanent organization: John F. Jennings, John Hanna and Farmer Ingham.

By unanimous request Colonel L. B. Duff addressed the meeting while the committee were out.

The following officers were then reported:

President—Captain Samuel Riddle.
Vice Presidents—Col. J. H. Foster, Wm. Mckee, S. Drum, D. W. Smith.
Secretary—R. A. George.
Treasurer—C. F. Ingham.
Executive and Finance Committee—Alexander Hanna, J. F. Jennings, Robert White, James Hastings, W. Thompson.

Captain Riddle on taking the chair made an eloquent address.

On motion, a committee was appointed to ascertain to what extent accommodations could be furnished in the ward to stranger soldiers—to act with the county committee.

On motion adjourned, with the sentiment "God Grant Geary Victory."

Court of Common Pleas.

The Court of Common Pleas met on Saturday with Judges Stowe and Brown on the bench.

A charter was granted for the incorporation of the Pine Run M. E. Church. The building is to be erected at the mouth of Pine Run, about five miles up the Monongahela river.

A charter was also granted for the incorporation of the Natrona M. E. Church, located about one mile above Tarentum, on the line of the Allegheny Valley Railroad.

A charter was granted to incorporate the German Methodist Episcopal Church, of Allegheny City.

Hugh K. Smith filed a petition in open court for a divorce from his wife, Margaret Smith, and a subpoena was awarded by the court.

In the case of Campbell B. Herron and Jas. C. Lewis, praying for a petition to lay a railroad from the Western Pennsylvania railroad to the coal works, near Sharpsburg. The Court granted the prayer of the petitioners, and gave them permission to erect the same and use it.

"In the matter of the application of the Business Man's College of Pittsburgh, for a charter," on motion of J. R. Butterfield, Esq., the final decree was made granting said charter, and the charter was ordered of record.

After this the Court adjourned.

Committed Suicide.

A man by the name of Jacob Auday, residing on Decatur Alley, between Fourth street and the Diamond, committed suicide night before last by hanging himself to his bed post. He was fifty-three years of age, and leaves a wife and four grown children. From all the facts it appears that he had been drinking very freely for some time past and while on the spree had occupied a bed chamber by himself. On Saturday night he came home intoxicated, and went to his room, locking the door as he entered. Yesterday morning his wife wished to enter the room and finding it locked, looked through the key hole and saw him hanging to the bed post. The door was forced, and the body cut down, but he must have been dead several hours. Alderman Donaldson held an inquest voer the deceased, when the above facts were elicited.

False Pretence.

John Williams appeared before Justice Lipp on Saturday and made an information against John Lindsey for false pretence. The defendant is charged with buying a certain lot of bed clothing from the prosecutor, for which he promised to pay the sum of thirteen dollars and to give in addition a small cooking-stove, valued at five dollars, making the sum total of eighteen dollars. Lindsey refused to fulfill his part of the agreement, and offered in lieu of the stove hereinbefore mentioned an old grate which had been an heir-loom in his family for several generations. Of course Williams demanded his bond, and failing to get it, instituted proceedings as stated. Lindsey was arrested, but was released on giving bail for a hearing on Saturday next.

An Apology Accepted.

We acknowledge the receipt of an apology from General McCallum for his rudeness to us at Steubenville, where we went with the Reception Committee to meet the Presidential party. While we accept the amende in the same spirit of kindness in which it is tendered, still we cannot say it is apology enough for his conduct on that occasion. Unwilling that the memory of such an unpleasant affair should longer annoy us, we dismiss the disagreeable episode from further consideration, and trust we shall not be under the necessity of referring to it again. It would be well for those who hold positions in our democratic government to learn to treat with proper respect the humblest citizen of the republic, whose servant they are.

Martha Grinder—The Evil that She Did Lives After Her.

It is with an ill grace that evil words are spoken of the dead. When the life, however vile, has ended and the will that moved to evil has stilled its energy in the grave; after the life which was employed as an opportunity to accomplish harm has opened into the life that brings inexorable doom, it is best to keep silence or speak only of the good part of the life that is past. But the wickedness of vile lives echoes long after the lives are spent, and whether we speak of it or not it is forcing itself into all ears and making many lives wretched. Now and then this wretchedness culminates in some life and we must speak of it and the cause that led to it.

None of us will ever forget, or will ever cease to shudder at the monstrous deeds of Martha Grinder. No woman that ever lived in this community—perhaps no woman that ever lived in the nation—roused such universal abhorrence by the deeds of horrid cruelty she wrought, or caused such a sense of relief and renewed safety by her death. No criminal of modern times has terminated so fearful a career of crime by so just a doom. Yet now that she is dead, people show an almost universal disposition to silence the imprecations with which they visited her before her death and strive to forget the crimes that made perdition her future, rather than to nurse the memory of them. While she lived she was a terror and a monster, who dealt in death as a pastime and poisoned babes in order that she might judge the effect her drugs would have on adults. Now she is dead, all are disposed to let her sleep well. While she was being tried for the murder of a beautiful woman, the crowd would have torn her limb from limb if they could have laid their hands on her. Now she has met her doom, none would dishonor her bones, even if the hidden grave in which she sleeps were revealed.

In the murder of Mary Caroline Caruthers we all thought that the fiendishness of the Borgia had reached its saddest culmination. A young woman—a bride, just commencing a happy life under the most genial circumstances; beautiful to such a degree that she caused the universal admiration even of her own sex; as good as she was beautiful; a happy wife and a beloved daughter, blessing an unshadowed home—such a woman was it that Martha Grinder murdered with the cold-blooded malignity of a fiend, that a few household articles and a little money might fall to the murderess. She murdered her, too, with such needless torture, playing with her victim's misery, and laughing—one can imagine, half regretfully—when the last scene came, and the poor girl lay dead.

All this was bad enough, but Martha Grinder did worse. Mary Caruthers had a husband, young, vigorous, happy and prosperous. The evil one who murdered his wife, worse than murdered him. For every dose of poison she gave his wife, she gave one to him, hoping to kill them both. The delicate woman died, the more stalwart man lived, a wretched wreck. The terrible death of his wife left his home desolate, his life darkened, his future a blank. The poison his enemy had fed to him continued its fell work, long after the murderer was mouldering in her felon's grave. It had shattered every nerve, and had wrecked every joint. Grief stricken; with his memories saddened by the blight that had withered his life; with every hope dead; with terrible physical suffering added daily and nightly to his mental anguish, and yet too strong to die—what else but one thing could happen to him? He went mad. On Thursday last Jas. Caruthers was taken a hopeless lunatic from his home in New Castle, to Dixmont Hospital.

To our minds, this crime for which Martha Grinder did not die, and which she was unconscious, for the most part, of having committed, is the most terrible of all her terrible list. If anything could make us think our charity for the dead sinner a superstition and lead us to curse the memory of the coffined wretch, this proof of how the crime reaches out active and potent after the criminal is only dust, would do it. Verily, the evil that she did lives after her.

A little episode occurred during the progress of the Presidential banquet at the St. Charles, that is worth preserving. While the festivities were going on, a strangely shaped and mysterious looking box was handed into the room. It fell first into the hands of one of the Committee of Reception, who had learned caution and suspicion by the emphasis recently displayed outside, and who looked on the box with fear and trembling, not doubting that it contained an infernal machine, designed to send President Johnson and party to "kingdom come" with celerity, for the box was addressed to his Excellency, with the compliments of one of our most prominent citizens. General Custar was called to take counsel with the Committeemen, and shared his apprehensions to the full. After deliberation, the box having been deposited without much deliberation, in a remote corner—the card of address was removed and taken to the gentleman whose name it bore. He disclaimed all knowledge of the package, and their assurance was doubly sure. The Committeeman grew the hue of white paper, and his knees smote together, while the military man summoned all his boldness. The box was removed gingerly into the back yard and the hydrant turned upon it. After receiving a thorough drenching, the lid of the box was removed and there was revealed—not the wires and battery and infernal magazine of a destructive engine, but simply the form of a—Dead Duck. They tried to keep the joke, but it was speedily circulated about the table, much to the chagrin of the men who had taken council of their fears.

Meanwhile the box had been nailed up again and cast out into the street, near the entrance to the hotel. At about two o'clock in the morning, a watchman, in passing, discovered a lot of excited men and boys standing in a wide circle about the box, and throwing stones at it. They, too, had discovered an infernal machine in the mysterious packet, and were stoning it to see if it would "go off." At last a little boy mustered up courage to go near the box, the lid was removed and the defunct fowl was again exposed. The crowd, finding the box was not a torpedo to blow the President to pieces when he should drive off in his carriage, went disappointedly home.

By some means the box found its way, by daylight back to the office of the gentlemen whose name had been forged on the card of address, and there met its final fate,—the fate due a duck so very dead as this.

Insulted Her.

A fair damsel who is known in the peculiar and festive circle in which she moves—or rather radiates—by the petite and pretty appellative of Ida May, came to the office of Alderman Lynch, on Saturday, and made oath against Michael Moran, for surety of the peace. In her deposition the fair one states that she has been grossly insulted by Michael on the public highway, on more than one occasion, by him calling her pet names, such as "How are you duck," and "good evening my dear." Those titles are doubtless by many considered rather flattering, but not so by Ida, and she very properly notified Michael, a few evenings since, that if he did not cease to address her by such, she would have him whipped. This aroused the latent indignation of the man of soft words, and he promised to kick Ida, as long as she could stand. The female was decidedly opposed to standing any of it, and made oath as stated. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of the insulter.

A Noble Roman in the Tombs.

On Saturday night one of the "characters" in Captain Lewis' chambers, was a lengthy individual who announced with true Roman dignity that his name was Marcus Aurelius Candor, Esq., and that he was a member of the Pittsburgh Bar. He had been arrested by some vile fellow and put in there, he had no idea for what. We have remarked the strange fact that the occupants of the lock-up are the most immaculate class in our community. Not one that we have ever seen there had done anything wrong, or had the remotest idea what he was in for. Marcus Aurelius, besides being one of the spotless, was a man of money. He stated that the rascally watchman who arrested him had robbed him of $1,040. On searching the records we discovered that he was arrested for drunkeness on Liberty street, and that, when captured, he had in his possession $1,00 towards his $1,040.

Abstraction.

Thomas Farrell lives in Allegheny, but on Saturday evening was whiling the happy hours away in a saloon, on the corner of Wylie and Tunnell streets. With him was a fellow whose name Thomas does not know, but who, he thinks, lives somewhere on Pennsylvania Avenue. After awhile the genial companion asked Thomas if it was not pretty nearly time for them to be going home. They were standing by the door at the time, and when Thomas took out his watch the genial companion snatched it, skipped through the open door and disappeared, evidently thinking that it was fully time for him to be getting home. Farrell came down to the Mayor's office with his story, but inasmuch as he does not know the thief's name, can give no description of him and don't know where to find him, it is barely possible that he will never see his watch again.

A Son Stroke.—Thomas Keenan, of Crawford street, knocked his father down on Saturday night, and was captured and locked up for it. In the cell he was shaken by a tempest of emotion, weeping and wailing so loudly that he could have been heard on Fourth street, and pleading, at the top of a stentorian voice, to be allowed to go home. Indeed his love for the paternal roof seems only to have been equalled by his regard for his paternal parent. After his grief had somewhat subsided, he explained his trouble by stating that his sire was a —— deuced old fool, and was drunk, so he just "hit him a dab."

Oil Refinery Burned.—On Saturday the refinery of the Aladdin Oil Works, situated on the Allegheny river, about half a mile above Kiskiminitis, caught fire in some unknown manner, and was destroyed, together with one hundred and fifty barrels of distilled oil. No other portion of the works was injured in the least. The loss is about $6,000, and is fully covered by insurance in eastern companies.

A Catholic Becomes Methodist.—Yesterday Rev. Flannery, formerly a Catholic, was admitted to probation preparatory to uniting with Christ M. E. Church on Penn street, Rev. D. B. Snyder, Pastor. Rev. Flannery was formerly Professor of Classics and Elocution of St. Vincent's College, in Westmoreland county, and has recently been led to embrace the Protestant faith.

On motion the following delegates were appointed to the National Convention: General Chas. Barnes, Capt. S. C. Schoyer, Col. L. B. Duff.

On motion adjourned.

Fatal Accident.

Mrs. Ann Maitland, Neshannock township, Lawrence county, met with an accident on Monday last which resulted in her death on Thursday afternoon. She had been on a visit to her father near Youngstown, O., and was returning in a one horse buggy—her daughter driving. They were on the Bedford road, about half a mile beyond Harbor Bridge; and whilst descending a hill, something about the hold-back strap gave way and the horse started to run. The girl jumped out of the back part of the buggy with the intention of catching the horse; she, however, failed in the attempt. Mrs. Maitland guided the horse into a fence corner, and it stopped so suddenly that she was precipitated against the fence with great violence, producing severe concussion of the brain and other internal injuries. She was taken to the house of Mr. David Sproat, near by, where she lingered in an almost insensible condition for some time, when death ensued.

Struck With a Stick.—John Warren appeared before Alderman Taylor on Saturday, and made oath charging Winfield Beller, with assault and battery. The prosecutor alleges that Mrs. Beller struck the wife of the deponent on the shoulder with a large hickory stick which she was using to remove coals of fire from a bake oven. The injury inflicted by the blow was so severe as to force Mrs. Warren to remain in bed for several days. The accused was arrested but was released on giving bail for a hearing to-day.

The Leader.—The Leader of yesterday was remarkably well gotten up, presenting an unusual quantity of choice original and selected matter. Mr. Mills has reason to feel proud of his success as a journalist. Under his editorial management the Leader has wonderfully improved. It has grown to be an institution of the city, and a reading man would as soon go to his church on Sunday without his breakfast as to miss reading its closely packed columns of news and gossip.

Nuisance.—We respectfully call the attention of the President of the Birmingham Passenger Railway Company to the fact that during the last week boys have been allowed to distribute, in the cars of the Company, handbills which we regard as decidedly obscene in their character, and ought not to be allowed. We refer to it at the instigation of several gentlemen who desired that we should call attention to it.

DIED:

WEITBRECHT—On Saturday, Sept. 15th, 1866, ELLEN WEITBRECHT, at her mother's residence, Mrs. Morley, on Harmony street, Birmingham.

The funeral will take place THIS (Monday) AFTERNOON, at 2 o'clock. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

HOME AGAIN.

President JOHNSON has "swung round the circle" at last, and is back at his home in the White House, at which, doubtless, both his partisans and opponents feel alike relieved and rejoiced.

There will be no more humiliating page in the history of this country than that which shall record the mission of President JOHNSON to the tomb of DOUGLAS. With deliberate intent he cast off the dignity which properly belongs to the high station he happens to occupy. He forgot the sacred object of his mission, and assumed and persistently maintained that of the partisan and demagogue. Seizing every available opportunity to harangue the people who gathered around him, his sole object seemed to be to defame and insult millions of his countrymen, and praise and glorify himself.

ANDREW JOHNSON left Washington a dangerous man—for a bad man armed with great power and patronage, and supported by able men, however disloyal or corrupt, is always dangerous—but he returned a disgraced man, incapable of much further mischief. By his own folly he has destroyed what little moral power he possessed, and, without that, mere official power is of little consequence in a country like this. Remember JOHN TYLER.

All loyal thinking men now perceive that it will never do to entrust the destinies of the country to the hands of such a man as this, and instinctively turn to Congress as their only dependence in this perilous crisis. The false impression that the President and his partisans had, by their bold and noisy assertions, managed to propagate, that Congress had done nothing to restore the Union, is being rapidly removed; and the loyal people (and nine-tenths of the people of the North are loyal at heart) are pondering carefully that consummately wise and statesmanlike scheme for the reconstruction of the Union which Congress has submitted to the States in the shape of an amendment of the National Constitution. They see that it will be adopted; they feel that it ought to be adopted, because it is eminently just and generous; and they are beginning to realize the fact that it must be adopted before we can again become a united people. They are becoming more and more persuaded that the crude, ill-advised, ill-digested scheme of the President—and about which he and his disloyal adherents have made such an uproar—will not do at all.

The people see that under the Congressional scheme the States come in by their own act—by their ratification of the amendment. In that scheme, therefore, the proper rights of the States are carefully conserved; while, at the same time, the safety of the nation against future danger is thoroughly provided for. They are not to be dragged in by force; but they are invited to come in. It is not based upon the absurd assumption that, although they went out, they were never out, and consequently are now in, just as they were before they took the position of national enemies. It is, on the other hand, based upon the assumption—that their relations to the Union were suspended, and that this is the method by which those relations are to be revived and restored.

President JOHNSON, in his late tour, voluntarily cast himself, with his "policy," into the scale of public opinion, and has been found wanting. The people now know what he is and what it is, and in three weeks from to-morrow those of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Iowa will proclaim to the world their verdict in the case.

If the country sustains ANDREW JOHNSON, after the shameful exhibition he has made of himself during his late trip, it dishonors itself; but if, on the other hand, it sternly rebukes and repudiates him, the dishonor will settle upon his own head.

THE CRAWFORD DISTRICT.

Apprehensions have been felt that Mr. DARWIN A. FINNEY, the Republican candidate for Congress in this district, was in more or less jeopardy, in consequence of the sharp contest which preceded his nomination. Last week we paid a visit to Crawford county, attended a number of Republican mass meetings, and was brought into personal intercourse with many hundreds of Republican voters. From all we could gather, the disaffection is not likely to amount to much. A good many Republicans undoubtedly preferred to have Mr. PETTIS nominated rather than Mr. FINNEY. They were overruled, the supporters of Mr. FINNEY actually outnumbering them. Most of Mr. PETTIS's friends are now earnestly enlisted in the support of Mr. FINNEY. They had their preference, and expressed it, but had at no time any intention of factiously to follow at it the peril of the ticket. A few individuals still hold out, and declare they will not vote for Mr. FINNEY. They are few in numbers, and mainly of the conservative persuasion, who want an excuse for following the President into the Democratic camp. Mr. FINNEY will be elected. He is in no danger whatever. It is possible he may fall a hundred or two behind his ticket; but we should not be surprised if the returns showed he was fully up to the other candidates. Mr. FINNEY's abilities are unquestionable, and there is no doubt at any time as to where he stands politically. Besides, a strong feeling prevails in regard to the necessity of fortifying Congress to the ut- [illegible] tent. Before this feeling, personal [illegible] s cannot stand. The imminence [illegible] crisis is appreciated, and over- [illegible] considerations. We re- [illegible] go through, and

IGNORANCE, OR WORSE.

The President, in his speech at the banquet at the St. Charles Hotel, speaking of Congress, used the following language:

"How have they healed the breach? Have they admitted the representatives, loyal or disloyal—have they taken any steps? What assurance has been given that even after this tub has been thrown to the whale, merely to amuse the public mind, for the time being—the Amendment to the Constitution—suppose they were to ratify to-morrow, what assurance have you, then, that the representatives would be admitted and the Union restored? Has there been any assurance given? None! None! But, instead of taking steps to restore the Government of the United States, every impediment has been thrown in the way."

It is difficult to characterize such reckless assertions as these in tones fit to appear in the columns of a public journal. The positive portion of what he says is utterly devoid of truth—the conjectural portion is what no honorable man could or would utter. This is the first time, so far as we have observed, that he has referred to the Amendment of the Constitution at all, since he set out on his stump-speaking tour, and it had been better for his own reputation had he avoided the allusion he here makes to it.

With a flippancy that would disgrace a brawling township politician, he speaks of one of the most solemn and carefully considered acts that was ever done by the representatives of the American people, and which is sure to have a vast majority of their suffrages, as "a tub thrown to the whale," and then asks: "Suppose they were to ratify to-morrow, what assurance have you that the representatives would be admitted, and the Union restored? Has there been any assurance given? None! none!" Are we to attribute to ignorance, or to something worse, that the President indulges in such reckless conjectures and assertions in the face of a law passed at the last session of Congress, and now on the statute book, providing for the immediate admission of any of the insurgent States, upon its ratification of the amendment in question, and also in the face of the fact that the Senators and Representatives of Tennessee were admitted on the same conditions? We leave his friends to take either horn of the dilemma they please. Either of them puts Mr. JOHNSON into a most unenviable position.

There are many points in that speech as open to criticism as this, but it is hardly worth while to waste words upon it, or any of his utterances. The more he talks the more enormous will be our majorities in October and November.

MASS MEETING AT MEADVILLE.

Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.

MEADVILLE, Sept. 15, 1866.

The Republican Mass Meeting, held here yesterday, surpassed all former demonstrations, in spirit as well as in numbers. The various deputations from adjoining localities vied with each other in decorations and in magnitude. An unusual number of distinguished strangers were in attendance, including General Geary, General Cameron, Governor Curtin, Hon. G. A. Grow, of Pennsylvania, Colonel McKee of Kentucky, and Hon. William Nelson of Tennessee. The following named gentlemen were announced as officers of the meeting:

President—Hon. John Dick.

Vice Presidents—Hon. Wm. Davis, Jr., Daniel Shryock, Samuel McCall, J. D. Minniss, Hiram Johnson, Milton Richards, A. B. Ross, Dr. A. P. Waid, J. J. Cochran, Wm. Power, D. S. Mosier, John McNamara, S. H. Findley, Wm. P. Biles, B. Ewing, G. W. Watson, Joseph Line, Dr. S. S. Bates, David Brown, H. B. Wadsworth, Joseph Sayres, P. A. Gage, Samuel Winton, Sr., S. M. Winchester, Isaac Saeger, S. S. Barrackman, David Marshall, D. W. Elderkin, Abner White, Howell Powell, O. Baldwin, James Chalfant, A. Whiting, Hon. Wm. Crozier, Jonathan Benn, E. H. Chase, Geo. M. Mowbray, J. H. H. Coggswell, Jacob Blystone, Isaac Peiffer, Wm. Compton, Timothy Hill, Geo. Cole, Lyman Perkins, John M. Calvin, D. D. Walker, John Saeger, Hugh Smith, Wm. Wright, Samuel Gordon.

Secretaries—W. W. Bloss, W. B. Drake, J. E. Rupert, Nelson Smiley, S. H. Miller, F. H. Braggins, B. F. H. Lynn.

Marshals—Joseph Shippen, Colonel H. S. Huidekoper, J. J. Henderson, H. L. Richmond, Jr.

The stand for speaking was erected in the public square. Here General Geary spoke briefly. He was followed by Colonel McKee in a long and able speech. Meanwhile the Court-house was opened and filled to overflowing with people. Governor Curtin addressed the audience at length and with great effect.

In the evening another meeting was held in the Court-house. Hon. G. A. Grow occupied a short time, and was succeeded by F. B. Penniman, Esq., in an exhaustive argument, who was in turn followed by Mr. Chase, of York, and Hon. M. B. Lowry, of Erie.

You need have no fears of Crawford county. Whatever dissensions have existed here are healed. A few malcontents, supporters of "My Policy," have gone over to the Democrats, but their places have been more than filled by accessions from the other side. Depend upon it, we shall give a good account of ourselves in October.

SPONTANEOUS MEETING AT CORRY.

Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.

CORRY, September 15, 1866.

All your readers may not know where this town is. To explain, let me say, it is at the crossing of the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad and the Sunbury and Erie, and at the junction with these of the Oil Creek Railroad. Four years ago, the primitive forest occupied the site of the town. Now, it has eight thousand inhabitants.

Yesterday Gen. Geary, Gen. Cameron, Gov. Curtin and others passed here on the way down to Titusville to attend a Republican mass meeting. Our people resolved to have a meeting of their own when these gentlemen came back to-day on the way to Meadville. They reached here at half-past six o'clock this morning, and repaired to the hotel for breakfast. While this was made ready and partaken of a platform was hastily constructed, and between two and three thousand people were gathered around it. Gen. Geary and Gov. Curtin made addresses of great power and acceptance. The meeting lasted until the Meadville train came along.

—A curious case is now pending before one of the Georgia courts at Augusta. Jno. K. Jackson brings suit against the Southern Mutual Life Mutual Insurance Company of South Carolina for $10,000, the amount for which the life of one William Sykes was insured, the latter having assigned the policy to Jackson. The defense held that Sykes, having died in the Confederate service, the policy is null and void, as it was expressly stipulated he was not to enter the military service. The plaintiff claims that Sykes, having been conscripted into the service, is entitled to recover the same as if had never been in it. The case was ably argued, and the Judge reserved his decision.

—Mollie Trussel, who is now in custody for the murder of George Trussel, at Chicago, Illinois, made a desperate attempt to commit suicide last week by hanging herself with her shawl. The cell in which she is confined is about six feet wide and ten in length, and light is admitted through a small grating in the door. To one of the bars of this grating Mollie tied her silk shawl, twisted into a cord with a running noose. Then standing on a chair she fastened it round her neck and deliberately threw herself off. A woman in an adjoining cell heard her struggles, and called the turnkey, who rescued her from her perilous position.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

C. G. SEELY'S
CHOLERA PREVENTIVE.
FOR REGULATING THE BOWELS, destroying Acidity in the Stomach, creating a healthy action of the Liver, assisting in the Secretion of Healthy Bile, giving Regularity to the Bowels, and assisting the System to a Healthy state, the PREVENTIVE is unsurpassed. It has been tried in thousands of instances, and has never been known to fail where the directions were strictly followed.
At this time, when we know not at what moment the fell destroyer may be upon us, nothing should be left undone that can be done to give the system a healthy action, and it is with a view to bring about this great desideratum, which of itself is the strongest bulwark against the attacks of cholera, that this medicine is offered to an intelligent public. Its action in cases of Diarrhea is magical. One bottle of the Preventive serves to check the complaint—two seldom required.

Seely's Cholera Preventive
Is the result of many years study and labor. The object of the proprietor in the first place was to produce a medicine that would assist digestion and relieve him from the terrible sufferings of Dyspepsia. Having attained this great end, he found that the mixture was an admirable regulator, and that in cases of diarrhea its action was wonderful. Incipient Diarrhea was cured by a single bottle, and even chronic cases were compelled to succumb to the powerful efficacy of this medicine.
Having by actual experiment in his own case, and that of his family, satisfied himself of its curative powers, he offers it to the public in full confidence that it will effect all that he claims for it.
Unlike the numberless quack nostrums that are foisted upon a too credulous public, it is not a universal cure-all, but is intended for a remedy, and is only efficacious in cases of Incipient Cholera, Diarrhea, Dyspepsia, or kindred ills, arising for the most part from imperfect digestion.
In full confidence of its restorative powers, it is now offered to the public.
No household should be without a supply of it.
Steamboats, Hotels and Travellers should always have it on hand.
It is easy to take, simple in its nature, and instantaneous in its effects.
Sold by all respectable druggists and country storekeepers. au27:128M

THE NEW
Spring and Summer Medicine.
FLUID EXTRACT
SARSAPARILLA,
COMBINED WITH
Iodide of Lime,
PREPARED FOR
G. W. PETTES, BOSTON,
BY
James R. Nichols & Co.,
MANUFACTURING CHEMISTS,
MANUFACTURERS OF THE
ELIXIR PERUVIAN BARK
WITH
Protoxide of Iron,
Which has become so favorably known as a
Tonic and Restorative,
by Physicians and Invalids in all parts of the country.

The new preparation, "SARSAPARILLA IN A COMBINATION WITH IODIDE OF LIME, presents one of the most prompt alterative agents in a form capable of exerting full action upon the system, and this in minute and pleasant doses. It is conceded that the alterative, resolvent, or tonic effects of Iodine, are exerted most decidedly when associated with other alteratives, in combination; and the Sarsaparilla seems to fulfil perfectly all the favorable requisitions.

The first effect usually observed when "SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME" is taken, is an increase of appetite, showing that it has tonic properties of a marked character. Its alterative effects are manifest in its ready combination with the blood and tissues. Pale, scrofulous women and children improve rapidly under its use, and the vital functions assume a healthy condition.

It is admirably adapted to a large number of chronic or acute affections peculiar to children. It is suited to them, both by the mildness and efficiency of Medicinal effect and the pleasant, attractive form of the remedy. It may be given for a long period where constitutional influences are desired, and no repugnance or disinclination to take the syrup, encountered. In White-Swellings, Hip-Joint Disease, and Distortions of the Spine, it should be given persistently, in moderate doses, until relief is obtained.

The accumulation of morbid matters in the system seems to become manifest and very troublesome. Lassitude, Headache, Boils, Costiveness, Loss of Appetite, Pains in the Joints, Indigestion, etc., are very common. Nothing ever devised is better adapted to exterminate or drive off these affections than this new combination of SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME.
No preparation like it, or which approximates to it as an Alterative, or Blood Purifier,
has ever before been placed within the reach of invalids. Indeed, it is an entire NEW and SCIENTIFIC combination in no respect resembling anything hitherto employed.
The opinion of medical men concerning it, the description of its chemical character, therapeutic value, manner of use, etc., are given in a circular, which can be had at the store of any and all first-class Druggists.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON FIRST PAGE.)

The Second Ward Geary Club—Enthusiastic Meeting—A "Boys in Blue" Organization Effected.

The citizens of the Second ward turned out in their might on Saturday evening, at the first public campaign meeting held under the auspices of the Geary Club of that district. The hall was crowded to its utmost capacity, the Seventh ward "Boys in Blue" honoring their co-laborers of the Second ward with their presence accompanied by a martial band, which supplied the meeting with the most stirring of music at intervals during the meeting. President Thos. Steel called the meeting to order, and in a few brief and pertinent remarks stated that as the main object of the evening was to perfect the "Boys in Blue" organization of the ward, he felt that some one of the gallant and patriotic soldiers should be called upon to preside over the deliberations of his comrades. He, therefore, would retire from the chair, and hoped some representative soldier would be chosen as the President of the evening.

Lieut. W. B. Cook was nominated as temporary President and was elected unanimously, and John F. Hunter, Esq., was chosen as Secretary.

Upon assuming the duties of his position as President, Lieut. Cook returned his hearty and sincere thanks to the "Boys in Blue" for the high honor conferred upon him, inasmuch as he was a comparative stranger in the ward. He knew the soldiers' fidelity to his country during the trying hours of rebellion, and now who could doubt but they would, to a man, vote as they shot.

President Cook's speech was a happy, patriotic effort, and was received with the greatest of enthusiasm by the large audience in attendance.

On motion of Mr. John F. Hunter a Committee upon Organization was appointed, consisting of the following gentlemen: John F. Hunter, D. M. Howe, R. D. McKee, Jas. H. Morris and Thomas E. Wilson.

The committee retired and loud calls were made for a speech, coupled with our patriotic fellow citizen's name, T. T. Ewing, Esq.

Mr. Ewing took the stand and delivered an address abounding with great truths, hard hits and witticisms. His review of President Johnson's course and that of Congress, was remarkably fine, and we think he succeeded in converting to the cause of the Union any who were in attendance with wavering minds. The speaker was frequently interrupted with storms of applause.

Mr. Hunter, at the conclusion of Mr. Ewing's address, from the committee upon permanent organization, reported the following officers of the "Boys in Blue":

President—Lieut. W. B. Cook.
Vice Presidents—Frank Weyman, John F. Hunter.
Secretaries—R. D. McKee, Jos. L. Evans.
Enrolling Committee—Capt. Galbreath, Jas. Hays, Crosby Gray.
Delegates to Convention—Capt. David M. Howe, Lieut. Thomas E. Wilson, Lieut. John H. Morris.

On motion, the nominations were elected by acclamation, and the report of the Committee adopted.

The Second Ward Glee Club were here introduced by President Steel, and rendered a number of popular campaign songs in a manner reflecting the highest credit upon their musical abilities. Indeed, the Second ward has reason to be proud of possessing such a splendid auxiliary to their Geary Club. It is under the direction of Mr. Abel Jones, and is composed of a number of the best singers in the city. The singing caused the greatest excitement, and cheers upon cheers rolled up as the pointed songs were sung.

Captain Moore, of Perry county, was the next speaker introduced. He had served and fought under General Geary, and pronounced our noble candidate a brave, fearless, upright and heroic officer. The speaker continued at some length to address the meeting, detailing Geary's record as a soldier, and urging upon all the necessity of doing our full duty now.

After three cheers for Geary, the meeting adjourned.

Meeting of the Boys in Blue.

A spirited meeting of the honorably discharged Soldiers and Sailors of the Fourth ward, Allegheny, was held on Friday evening, in the hall of the Columbia Hook and Ladder Company.

The meeting was called to order by Capt. W. A. Herbert, who stated that the object was to organize a club of "Boys in Blue." The following gentlemen were selected as temporary officers:

President—Col. L. W. Smith.
Vice Presidents—Col. D. W. Megraw and Sergeant R. M. Blair.
Secretary—Adjutant J. E. B. Dalzell.

On motion a committee of five, consisting of the following gentlemen, were appointed on permanent organization: Col. D. W. Megraw, Capt. Wm. P. Herbert, Adj. A. P. Callow, Lieut. Alexander Carson and John C. McCowan.

On motion of Adjutant Callow the organization was styled the "Boys in Blue of the Fourth Ward, Allegheny."

The Committee on Permanent Organization reported the following officers, who were unanimously elected:

President—Colonel D. W. Smith.
Vice Presidents—Colonel D. W. Megraw, Captain James Thompson, Sergeant R. M. Blair, Sergeant David Jones, and Private Charles Seville.
Secretary—Adjutant J. E. B. Dalzell.
Assistant Secretary—Private John C. McCowan.
Treasurer—Captain Wm. P. Herbert.

The following Committees were also appointed:

Executive Committee—John C. McCowan, Captain John C. Sample, and Adjutant A. P. Callow.
Finance Committee—Capt. Alex. Carson, Sergt. R. M. Blair, Capt. Joseph R. Oxley, Lieut. Jos. Hough and D. M. Mullin.
Committee on Printing and Banners—Adjt. A. P. Callow, Capt. James Thompson and Lieut. Wm. Greenawalt.

Captain Samuel C. Schoyer, Captain Jos. R. Oxley, Mr. Euwer and Col. Thomas M. Bayne made short and encouraging addresses to the Club.

The following gentlemen were then elected delegates to represent the ward in the Convention of the 25th instant:

First Precinct—Colonel L. W. Smith, Captain Joseph R. Oxley, and Captain William P. Herbert.
Second Precinct—Colonel D. W. Megraw, Lieutenant A. Kradel and Sergeant B. M. Blair.

A large number of names were enrolled as members of the Club during the meeting. Rolls can be found at Captain Carson's, Federal street, and with Sergeant Blair, at the Columbia Hall, where those wishing to join can enroll their names.

The Club adjourned to meet at the call of the Executive Committee.

Ladies Committee of the Boys in Blue.

Pursuant to adjournment a large number of the ladies in Pittsburgh and vicinity, met at City Hall on Saturday at two o'clock P. M. Mrs. Samuel McKee presided.

On motion, Miss Sue McCord and Miss Lizzie Lightner were elected additional Secretaries.

The following ladies were added to the list of Vice Presidents:

Mrs. General James S. Negley, Mrs. John Watt, Mrs. Major Wm. Frew, Mrs. Rowan, Mrs. B. L. Fahnestock, Miss Eliza Chislett, Mrs. John F. Robinson, Mrs. W. M. McCord, Mrs. Leonard S. Johns.

On motion of Miss Christie, the President and Vice Presidents were requested to select sub-committees, of which they should be ex-officio Chairmen.

In accordance with the resolution, the President and Vice Presidents announced the following sub-committees:

Mrs. Samuel M'Kee, Chairman; Mrs. Elizabeth T. Wood, Miss Edith M. Cameron, Miss Lydia R. Snyder, Mrs. McQuiston, Mrs. J. H. Mitchell, Miss Nan Duncan, Miss Lydia Morris, Miss John Barton, Mrs. Noel, Miss M. Smith, Miss Mary Ward, Miss Lizzie Williamson.

Mrs. John Wall, Chairman; Mrs. Chas. Robb, Mrs. Dr. Cote, Miss Hattie Moorhead, Miss B. Shephard, Miss Birdie Watt, Miss Mary Johnston, Miss Mollie W. Watt, Miss Emma Breed.

Mrs. General James S. Negley, Chairman; Mrs. Norman W. Smith, Mrs. Lewis, Miss Maggie Montooth, Miss Mary Parker, Miss Lucy Graham, Miss Kate Baum.

Mrs. General A. L. Pearson, Chairman; Miss Emma Kean, Miss Ella Paisley, Miss Nan Paisley, Miss Ettie McKelvey, Miss Jennie Watt, Miss Lizzie Lightner.

Mrs. Robert Rowan, Chairman; Miss Julia Christy, Miss Jennie Morrison, Miss Ella Whitmore, Miss Alice McCord, Miss Mary P. Robinson, Miss Sallie A. Herron, Miss Lizzie McCandless.

Mrs. B. L. Fahnestock, chairman; Miss Hettie Fahnestock, Miss Mary Fahnestock, Miss Vandevort, Miss Fannie Canfield, Miss Mary Canfield, Miss Hanna Fannestock.

Mrs. Wm. M. McCord, chairman; Miss Sue Stevenson, Miss Maggie Gray, Miss Sadie Gray, Miss Lizzie Brown, Miss Laura Rhinehart, Miss Nannie Whitmore.

The President announced that Sub-Committees would be appointed by those of the Vice Presidents who have not yet re-elected their Committees.

The greatest enthusiasm prevailed and the ladies manifested a strong desire to contribute all in their power toward giving the gallant soldiers and sailors a fitting reception.

The meeting then adjourned to meet again at two o'clock P. M., Monday, 17th inst.

Sued.—Susan Edward, a Welsh lady, appeared before Alderman Morrow on Saturday and made oath against James Jones for surety of the peace. The prosecutrix states that Jones threw water on her steps and called her dark and abusive names, concluding his tirade by threatening to take her life. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Jones, who resides in Pipetown, and is employed in the Kensington Iron Works.

Boy Injured.—About three o'clock on Saturday afternoon, a lad named Gabriel Williams fell off a shed some twelve feet in height, in the Sixth ward, and injured himself very severely—his arm being broken below the elbow, and his left ankle sprained. He was removed to his home where Dr. Herron was summoned and dressed his injuries.

Metoric Shower.—Professor Newton, of Yale College, who has devoted much time to the investigation of the periodic character of these showers, finds that a prodigious flight of meteors, the most imposing of its kind, will make its appearance, probably for the last time in the century, on the morning of the 13th or 14th of November next.

Fort Pitt Boiler, Steel and Tank Works.—In our account of a visit to this establishment, published on Friday, we neglected to name the proprietors, Carroll & Sn[illegible]r, whose advertisement in another column [illegible] commend to the notice of our many read[illegible] the oil districts of Pennsylvania, Ohio an[illegible]st Virginia.

Practical Business Education.—The introduction of Actual Business in a course of commercial training, is a new feature in Business Colleges, and without disparagement to any other, we can safely say that the Iron City College of Pittsburgh, Pa., is the only one where it has been carried into successful operation.

Special Caution.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has become so popular that various parties have put out articles calling them Mrs. Winslow's. Please take notice that the Mrs. Winslow of the Soothing Syrup is not connected with any other article. jy11:d&w

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

Important From Mexico—Crisis of the Empire Has Arrived.

NEW YORK, September 15.—The Herald's City of Mexico correspondence of the 1st instant, says: The crisis of the Empire has evidently arrived, judging from the tone of the French and Mexican press, and the movement of the Liberals for an attack upon the very seat of Maximilian's power. The Imperialists themselves now look imploringly to the United States to take charge of the destinies of the nation.

Guayanar, Mazatian and San Luis Potosi, are reported evacuated by the French.

Marshal Bazaine is reported to be in the city of Mexico. General Geigre is at Puebla, concentrating the French troops at Arizoba, to pacify the Gulf coast around Vera Cruz.

Secretary Seward's Illness—The Disease Pronounced Cholera.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 15.—Secretary Seward arrived here last night, having every symptom of a violent attack of cholera. He was too ill to be removed, and remained in the railroad car over night at the depot. His physicians, however, reported him somewhat better this morning, and he left in the train at nine o'clock for Washington.

Depredations by Indians.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—A Tribune Leavenworth special says: The Sioux, Araphaoes and Cheyennes have taken the war path against the Ranche men. Several traders have been killed and much stock run off. In a fight with the Sioux fifteen of them were killed. All the stage stock at a station west of Cottonwood had been stolen, a stage attacked, a passenger killed, and the horses shot.

Reported Organization of Negro Leagues

NEW YORK, September 15.—The World makes the exciting announcement that four regiments of negroes are being organized in this city, and that African Loyal Leagues are organized and armed in every ward. The soldiers are being instructed in drill, &c., by Colonel Hawkins. The World asks, "Are we to have a taste of St. Domingo?"

Excitement in Canada—Raids on our Border Towns.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The Herald's Canada correspondence says: There is no abatement in the excitement concerning the Fenians. It is also said that the Canadians are organizing in squads to make raids upon the American border towns in revenge for Fenian raids upon Canada.

Sale of Negroes Contradicted.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The Tribune's Washington special says: General Swayne telegraphs to General Howard that the report of the sale of negroes in Alabama can hardly be true, and says nothing like a sale of persons, even for crime, is authorized by the laws of the State. The statement was made in a Tribune special from Chicago.

Reported Sale of the Panama Railroad.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Information is received from California that the Panama Railroad has been sold to an English Company, and the act is regarded as prejudical to the interests of the citizens of the United States crossing the Isthmus.

General Sherman to Visit the Southern Posts.

DENVER, COL., Sept. 14.—Gen. Sherman, who has been here for the past three days, left this morning, accompanied by Gov. Cummings, to visit the Southern posts.

EDUCATIONAL.

MT. AUBURN
YOUNG LADIES' INSTITUTE.

This School has just concluded its tenth year. Its HISTORY has been one of prosperity and growth from the commencement. The last two years the daily average attendance has been more than two hundred, and many have been refused for want of accommodation.

A NEW BUILDING

Is now under contract, to be ready for occupancy at the opening of the Fall Session in September, and it is hoped that hereafter all can be received as pupils who apply.

The LIBRARY, APPARATUS and CABINET are receiving yearly, valuable additions, and the purpose is kept steadily in view, to furnish every facility for a thorough course of instruction.

The Faculty consists of four male and eleven female teachers, all experienced instructors in their several departments.

Mertz, were as follows: Gold, 144¾@145; 1881 bonds 111¼ old 5-20s, 111⅛@111; new do, 108½; 10-40s 99¾; 7-30s, 1st issue, 106¼; do 2d 106¼; Michigan Southern R. R., 83½; Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad, 85½; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad 105½; Erie, Railroad, 72⅝; Western Union Telegraph Company, 58⅜; Chicago & Rock Island, 108½; Chicago & North Western, preferred, 66¼.

The wonderful success which the 7-30 loan has attained, has tempted corporations to offer a similar interest—7 3-10 in currency or 6 per cent in gold. It is very tempting to invest in securities at par or at a discount instead of paying a premium of 8¾ per cent, but it is generally overlooked that with the decline in national bonds, which is an inevitable consequence on or about the resumption of specie payments, all other values must depreciate in greater ratio, since they cannot so readily be convertible as governments. None should invest in local securities except those having a considerable amount of surplus funds. Anything disturbing the ease of the money markets or the ordinary channels of trade, will cause local securities to decline, as there is no foreign capital lying idle here as in the eastern cities, or even Cincinnati, Chicago or St. Louis.

It is time that people were beginning to prepare themselves for a sharp contraction of the currency. It is particularly important that the National Banks were preparing for it. Mr. McCulloch's policy is manifest in that direction. He has now very nearly as much currency in the Treasury as when he commenced the payment of the temporary loan, and his balances are steadily increasing, while nearly all his obligations that will mature within a year are out of the way. In addition he holds $50,000,000 in gold exclusively of that represented by certificates of deposit. Of greenbacks there are now less than $400,000,000 in circulation, while there is authority to cancel $4,000,000 of these per month. In addition the Secretary has authority to sell gold-bearing bonds for lawful money. Now suppose Mr. McCulloch should lock up within the next sixty days $100,000,000 in greenbacks, is it not evident that the notes remaining out would at once go to a premium, and from that moment would virtually be withdrawn from circulation? Then the National Banks would be called upon to redeem, and the whole assorting machinery of the country would go into operation.

This is to be the first step in the direction of specie payments—the first effective step, we mean—and when it is taken it will be felt. Then will follow, not immediately, but in due course, specie payments. That Mr. McCulloch expects to be able to resume specie payments some time during his administration is certain; that he believes he will be able to resume early in 1867 is generally understood; but in the latter expectation he will undoubtedly be disappointed. But within three months he can force National Banks to redeem in greenbanks, and that will be as much of a shock as the country can safely stand within one year. It does not require a prophet to foretell the effect upon values of the withdrawal of $100,000,000 of greenbacks within the next ninety days, and the consequent necessity for greenback redemption on the part of the National Banks. This would be equivalent to the withdrawal of at least $300,000,000 of paper money from active circulation. To this contingency business men and banks, if they would avoid the worst consequences of panics, and failures, should look forward now with a view to preparing for the change which Mr. McCulloch has in contemplation.

—The Philadelphia Ledger says:

It is confidently stated that the Secretary of the Treasury will not yield to the pressure recently brought to bear on him to sell gold in order to bring down the premium, and so punish those who have entered into combinations to run it up. He has wisely come to the conclusion, as stated, to leave gold, with all other commodities, to the general laws of trade, and speculators in it to the penalties of the traffic, that soon or later overtake most persistent speculators. The great centre of trade in gold is at New York, where, by the latest report, the Sub-Treasury held $93,968,000, of which $19,023,920 are represented by certificates, leaving nearly fifty millions as the property of the government. Outside of this the Treasury holds very little in the Atlantic States, the total elsewhere subject to its order in all its departments, including California, being only a fraction over five millions. It seems to be the general impression that there is more held in private hands than was supposed a year ago, but there is no means of determining that point with certainty. Independent of this, and heavy receipts from California, the influx of gold from Europe is large and steadily on the increase. The French steamer Pereire at New York, on Tuesday night, brought $1,125,000 in gold, not previously advised to the public by the Atlantic cable. The sum of $705,000 also came in next morning overland from Boston received for New York account per steamer China at that port. These arrivals, and the certainty of further sums from England early next week, all point to a full supply of gold in the home market, and certainly are not very favorable to the movement made at New York to hold the premium at unreasonable rates.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
SATURDAY, September 15, 1866.

There has been some little excitement in Flour and Wheat, owing to the material advance in both of these articles in the West, during the past week, but otherwise the produce markets are devoid of any new feature worthy of special notice.

GRAIN—Wheat is firm and in limited supply, sale of 1 car No. 1 Spring at $2,35; and 1 do No. 1 Extra at $2,40. Oats in better demand, and with very limited arrivals, prices are a shade higher, sale of 1 car prime at 40 on track in bags; and the same car subsequently changed hands at 43, delivered. No movement in Rye or Barley. Sale of 1 car Shelled Corn at 75 cents.

FLOUR—There is a continued good local demand, and as the stock is very much reduced, prices are well sustained. Sale of 100 barrels choice Spring, to city trade, at $11,75, 100 do do in lots, at $12; and 100 bbls choice Minnesota, at $12,25. Winter Wheat brands are selling at $12,75 to $13,50. Rye Flour is quoted firm at $6,50 to $6,75.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is steady, with regular sales at 17½ to 17¾ for Shoulders; 19½ to 20 for Ribbed Sides, and 25 to 26 for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is quiet and unchanged at 22 for prime kettle. Mess Pork is held firmly at $34,50.

MILL FEED—Sale of 1 car light Middlings at $1,75—prime heavy may be quoted as $1,80 to $1,85. Seconds are selling at $1,40 to $1,45, and Shorts at $1,10@1,15.

HAY—Is in light supply, and the market is firm but unchanged. We can report a sale of 7 tons prime baled, on wharf, at $24.

SEEDS—Timothy Seed is in good supply; in fact, the market is completely glutted, and prices are nominal at $3,50@3,75 for small lots from store. Flaxseed is in good request, and sells readily at $3 to $3,25. Cloverseed is nominal at $7,50@8.

BUTTER—There is a continued fair demand for prime fresh, but packed is dull and neglected—regular sales at 30 to 32.

EGGS—Quiet but firm, with regular sales of fresh packed at 21 to 22—mostly at 22.

CHEESE—Is firm, but unchanged; sales of Western Reserve at 16 to 17; Hamburg at 17 to 18, and Goshen at 20 to 21.

APPLES—Coming in more freely, and the market is dull, with a drooping tendency; quotations may be fairly given at $2 to $3 per barrel—choice, in large size barrels, $3,25 to $3,50.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
SATURDAY, Sept. 15, 1866.

CRUDE—There is no improvement to note in the demand for Crude, and the market continues quiet and dull with a drooping tendency. We now quote at 15 to 15½, bbls returned and in bulk, and 20 to 20½, bbls included—sale of 1200 bbls, in bulk, at 15. The transactions during the week have been comparatively light, buyers, generally, evincing a disposition to hold off in anticipation of lower prices, and, compared with the early part of the week, there has been a decline of fully one cent per gallon. The receipts during the week have been larger than usual, but the great bulk of that coming in had been previously sold, and consequently, the accumulation at this point is not as large as some have been led to believe. At Oil City, according to our latest advices, oil has advanced again, being quoted on Friday at $5 to $5,25 per bbl. In the east, the operations have been somewhat restricted for several days past, but prices are nominally unchanged.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil continues exceedingly dull and neglected, the demand for both present and future delivery being somewhat restricted, and prices are barely sustained. There was not a single operation to-day—sales on Friday of 1000 bbls "Montana" brand, at 39, free on board cars here; and 300 bbls "Lucifer" to be delivered in Philadelphia during the first half of October, at 45. To-day, however, these prices could not have been obtained, though as we have repeatedly stated there is but very little oil offering. October contracts are being offered in Philadelphia at 44 to 44½, and it is doubtful whether it could be had for November. For December, there is no inquiry, apparently, whatever, and the same is true of January. Free oil is dull but unchanged; prime city brands are held at 58 to 60.

RESIDUUM—There is no movement in this article, and prices are entirely nominal.

ARRIVALS—The following arrivals of oil were reported to-day:

Fisher & Bro	3336	Jas. Wilking	216
J. T. Stockdale	223	D. M. Edgerton	236
Baxter & Ellison	73	W. P. Logan	108

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

New York Stock and Money Market.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Money steady and unchanged, at 4@5 per cent. Sterling quiet and nominal, at 107@107¼. Gold lower, opening at 144¾; advancing to 144⅞ and closing at 144⅝. Exports of specie to-day, $18,500. Government stocks more active and firmer. Freights to Liverpool quiet and steady.

Discounts quiet owing to the limited supply of paper, the rate for prime names being 5@6 per cent. There is less demand for currency for moving the western crops than has been anticipated; instead of a steady flow of money westward, we find exchanges with that section above evenly balanced. The stock market shows decidedly more disposition to buy and prices are ¼@½c per cent. higher. Governments were stronger at the board under the improved quotations of London, and 5-20s of '62 rose ¼ per cent., after the board prices fell off ⅛@¼ per cent. The City of Boston takes out to-day $138,249 in specie. The cable telegram misstates the amount of gold sent by the Russia at 14,000 pounds, the correct amount being 141,000 pounds.

RIVER NEWS.

The river is receding slowly at this point, with four feet ten inches in the channel by the pier marks last evening. At Oil City the Allegheny was falling on Saturday, with but twenty-five inches. The weather yesterday was clear and pleasant.

The arrivals since our last report include the New State, from Wheeling, Bayard, from Parkersburg, and the Importer, from St. Louis. The Bayard had an excellent trip, and quite a number of passengers. The Importer also, had a fair trip, including a considerable amount of metal.

The Yorktown, for St. Louis, the Julia, for Portsmouth, and the Forest City, for Parkersburg, departed on Saturday. The Yorktown had a good trip, having all the freight she could take on the water.

The Argosy, Capt. Vandergrift, is announced for Cincinnati, and the Importer, Capt. Noss, is up for New Orleans.

The Argonaut No. 2 and the R. M. Hudson were loading at Cincinnati on Friday for Portsmouth, and were announced to leave on Saturday.

The new steamer Ezra Porter had steam up on Saturday, and we presume she will be able to commence loading in the course of a week or ten days.

The Armenia, Capt. A. C. McCallum, with Mr. A. C. McCallum, Jr. in the office, is announced for St. Louis and all intermediate forthwith, and passengers and shippers should bear this fact in mind.

The Bayard, Capt. Geo. D. Moore, is the regular packet for Parkersburg to-day, leaving promptly at noon. The Bayard has become a regular institution in the Pittsburgh and Parkersburg trade.

The Cincinnati Commercial, of Saturday, has the following items:

The Argonaut No. 2, Capt. H. Clay Richmond leaves for Pittsburgh this evening.......... Captain John A. Williamson sold the Mariner to Mr. Morton, yesterday, for $12,000. We also hear that an interest—one-eighth—of the Amazon was sold, at the rate of $24,000 for the entire boat.......... Admiral David Gibson left for St. Louis in last night's train..........

.......After running seventeen months, the People's Line have suspended operations, leaving the field clear for the United States Mail Line. This is the longest and most formidable competition the United States Mail Line have ever had to contend with, both companies having carried freight and passengers at ruinously low or losing rates. It is probable the St. Charles will take the place of the Monsoon, in the Cincinnati and Portsmouth trade. The Louisville Journal thus alludes to the suspension of the People's Line:

"We regret to learn that the People's Line have resolved to suspend for the present, the running of their boats. Capt. Jesse K. Bell has resigned the Presidency, and will probably go to New Orleans, where, we understand, he has been offered a pleasant and lucrative position. We regret to lose the People's Line and we regret exceedingly to lose Capt. Bell."

A Cairo dispatch under date of Thursday says:

As the steamer Tennessee was about to depart for Johnsonville last night, a lady and infant child fell overboard, and when lights were procured the mother was discovered holding the child above the water, while her own head was almost covered. Comprehending the necessity for immediate action, as the lady would not catch a rope, Nat. Embers, a colored freeman belonging to the steamer bravely struggled and supported the drowning woman until the yawl was brought. Capt. Priest, superintendent of the line to which the Tennessee belongs, made Nat a present on the spot; and citizens here are getting up a testimonial to be presented to him on the return of the vessel.

We take the following items from our Cincinnati exchanges of Friday:

A flat-boat, propelled by a stern wheel and a portable saw-mill engine, passed down the river yesterday, en route from Marietta to Fort Donaldson, on the Cumberland River..........

.......Capt. Sam Hildreth yesterday returned from his trip to Illinois. He is prospecting, and opens for business.......... Mr. Jas. W. Graff arrived from Niagara Falls to-day, and goes to St. Louis to attend a meeting of the directors of the Directors of the A. and M. S. S. Co.......... The Potomac, Capt. Charley Muhleman, resumes her regular trips to Wheeling, leaving this evening.......... Capt. Milt J. McCullough returned from New York yesterday, in fine health.......... The Ida Rees goes to Aurora to-day, after 4000 empty barrels for Pittsburgh.......... Capt. John. W. Anawalt, of the Pine Grove, and Capt. Jesse Dean, of the Messenger, arrived from Pittsburgh yesterday.
